RESIDENTIAL REVIEW

After the holidays, our residential students travelled back from various parts of the country including far off realms like Kent, Berkshire and Lancashire; this year they had the poor weather to contend with, too.

The first week back has been, mostly, a settling in week with staff and residents talking about their Christmas break and preparing for the term to come.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

OTHER NEWS

Noah has been preparing for his work experience.

Sophie is looking forward to starting cricket practice.

One young person stayed on an assessment night. This is an offer we extend to all potential residents.

We are looking forward to hosting a group of, deaf, school pupils from London, on the 20th January. They will spend an evening with us to gain an experience of the residential life and college.

INDEPENDENCE

Alistair has moved into the flat to begin his transition towards independent living. It will be exciting to watch his progress.

Good Luck Alistair

LEARNING

Several students did their independence learning in the first week back. Working on various subjects such as keeping the house clean.

Our weekend students visited the cinema to watch Mufasa. After concerns that the group's eyes were failing, or the film was faulty, a member of the public pointed out that it was a 3D showing!

Each resident is personalising a picture for the lounge wall. It helps our students to make the lodge their own.
